Disproving paradigms: the rules of morphogenesis ("Rules of Life")

1. Aligned collagen fibers surround the mammary gland
2. 3D-printing aligned collagen reveals that this scaffold does not direct mammary gland branching
3. Collagen accumulates at future cleft sites
4. Computational model reveals local collagen deposition controls branch angle