

PUMA 2022

Week 1: Wednesday July 6th - Friday July 8th

[All Lunches & Seminars held in Bowen Hall Atrium/Auditorium]

Wednesday, July 6th:

- 11:00am - 12:00pm Marie Curie Film and Ethics Humanity "Needs Dreamers"
12:00pm - 12:30pm Lunch
1:00pm - 2:00pm Talk by Research Scholar, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering by Janine Nunes

Thursday, July 7th:

- 11:30am - 12:00pm Lunch
1:30pm - 2:30pm Talk by Professor of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, Dr. Craig B. Arnold

Friday, July 8th:

- 11:30am - 12:00pm Lunch
(TBA) Talk by Leslie Schoop Graduate Students, Topic: Dye-Sensitized

This year's theme is Research Based Project Learning based on experimentation, materials that move and play including polymers, building materials, fluid dynamics surfactants.

Meet and work with Princeton University Researchers, Laboratories and facilities. Experience teachings from Dr. Joy Barnes Johnson with lessons and project work each day!

This Agenda is Subject to change as needed.

PRINCETON CENTER
FOR COMPLEX MATERIALS
an NSF-supported MRSEC

