PCCM Holiday Lecture 2020

A Materials Wonderland: A Celebration of How Materials Science Make Our Holidays Fun

On December 12, 2020, PCCM hosted its annual Holiday Lecture, a virtual event led by Princeton Professor Howard Stone and included Bonnie Bassler, Nikita Dutta, Niki Abbasi, Janine Nunes, Nick Garcia, Konane Bay, and others. The audience helped with experiments and demonstrations from their homes. 426 families registered, some with multiple children (tuning from all over the world), resulting in ~1,000 attendees!
